

Directions: Use the information on Google Classroom to create a comic strip storyboard of early communities in West Africa and the process they went through to become cities. Make sure to use full color and create a caption that answers the question below your drawing.

Ch.11.2: Create a drawing and a caption to describe the earliest communities in West Africa:	Ch.11.2: Create a drawing and a caption to describe the describe how and why villages formed from these early communities. Be sure to include the reasons why family-based communities joined together to form villages:	Ch.11.3: Create a drawing and a caption to describe the how and why some villages became trading sites and eventually grew into larger towns and cities:

Ch.11.3: Create a drawing and a caption to describe the How did the location of Jenne-jeno cause it to become a large, busy city:	Ch.11.4: Create a drawing and a caption to describe the Create a drawing and caption that describe how and why some of the wealthiest cities were able to conquer more territory and become a kingdom.	Ch.11.4: What is one advantage and one disadvantage of being part of a kingdom? What are the 3 kingdoms that emerged in West Africa?